And We do Expect and Require that all Perſons of Honour, or in Place of Authority, will give good Example by their own Virtue and Piety and to their utmoſt contribute to the Diſcountenancing Perſons of Diſſolute and Debauched Lives that they being by that means reduced to Shame and Contempt for their Looſe and Evil Actions and Behaviour, may be thereby alſo Enforced the ſooner to Reform their ill-Habits and Practices, and that the viſible Diſpleaſure of Good Men towards them, may (as far as is poſſible) ſupply what the Laws (probably) cannot altogether Prevent. And we do hereby ſtrictly enjoyn and Prohibit all Our Loving Subjects, of what Degree or Quality ſoever, from Playing on the Lord's Day at Dice, Cards, or any other Game whatſoever either in Publick or Private Houſes or other Place or Places whatſoever; and do hereby Require and Command them and every of them Decently and Reverently to Attend the Worſhip of God on every Lord's Day on Pain of Our higheſt Diſpleaſure, and of being Proceeded againſt with the Utmoſt Rigour that may be by Law. Our further Pleaſure is and We do hereby ſtrictly Charge and Command all Our Judges Mayors Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace and all other Our Officers and Miniſters both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, and all other Our Subjects, whom it may concern, to be very Vigilant and Strict in the Diſcovery and the Effectual Proſecution and Puniſhment of all Perſons who ſhall be Guilty of Exceſſive Drinking, Blaſphemy, Prophane Swearing and Curſing, Lewdneſs, Prophanation of the Lord's Day, or other Diſſolute Immoral or Diſorderly Practices; and that they take Care alſo Effectually to Suppreſs all Publick Gaming Houſes and Places, and other Lewd and Diſorderly Houſes, and to put in Execution the Statute made in the Nine and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second Intituled, An Act for the better Obſervation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and alſo an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of the late King William the Third Intituled, An Act for the more Effectual Suppreſſing of Blaſphemy and Prophaneneſs, and all other Laws now in Force for the Puniſhing and Suppreſſing any of the Vices aforeſaid; and alſo to Suppreſs and Prevent all Gaming whatſoever in Publick or Private Houſes on the Lord's Day, and likewiſe that they take Effectual Care to Prevent all Perſons keeping Taverns, Chocolate Houſes, Coffee Houſes, or other Publick Houſes whatſoever from Selling Wine, Chocolate, Coffee,

&c.

Ale, Beer, or other Liquors, or Receiving or Permitting Gueſts to be or remain in ſuch their Houſes in the Time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will anſwer it to Almighty God and upon Pain of Our Higheſt Diſpleaſure. And for the more Effectual Proceeding herein, We do hereby Direct and Command all Our Judges of Aſſize and Juſtices of the Peace, to give ſtrict Charges at their reſpective Aſſizes and Seſſions, for the due Proſecution and Puniſhment of all Perſons that ſhall preſume to Offend in any the kinds aforeſaid and alſo of all Perſons that, contrary to their Duty, ſhall be Remiſs or Negligent in Putting the ſaid Laws in Execution, and that they do, at their reſpective Aſſizes and Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, cauſe this our Proclamation to be publickly read in Open Court immediately before the Charge is given. At the Court at St. James's, January 5. 1714.

PRESENT

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable Charles Earl of Orrery Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Somerſet: His Lordſhip this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, January 7. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in behalf of themſelves and their reſpective Congregations in the County of Glouceſter; preſented to his Majeſty by Mr. Samuel Jones, and Mr. Samuel Roſewell, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Wharton, Lord Privy-Seal.

An humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough of Traly; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Both which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Conſtantinople, Novemb. 28. Yeſterday a great Divan was held in the Vizier's Houſe, at which were preſent the Mufti, Caddileskiers Chief Men of the Law, the Heads of all the Orders of Soldiery, the Captain Paſhaw or Admiral, and others; and after Deliberation War was reſolved and declared againſt the Venetians, and Prayer for Succeſs was ſaid as uſual. This done, the Bailo or Ambaſſador of the State of Venice, who had been ſent for on this Occaſion, was introduced, and the Grand Vizier acquainted him, that the Republick not having given Satisfaction upon the juſt Demands which had been ſeveral times made on the Part of the Grand Signior, but made frivolous and dilatory Anſwers, without ever coming to a Concluſion, his Highneſs had determined to endeavour to do himſelf Right by Arms; that therefore it was his Highneſs's Pleaſure, that he the Bailo ſhould give Notice to all the Conſuls and Subjects of the Republick to depart this Empire within 21 Days: And then the Bailo was ſent to the Houſe of the Topgibaſchi, where he remains under a Guard, being allowed to cauſe his Furniture, Equipage, and other Effects to be brought to him from his own Houſe, and to make the neceſſary Preparations for his Departure; accordingly 'tis ſaid he propoſes to imbark within a few Days on a Venetian Ship. The Turks Preparations both for the Land and Sea Service are ſo far advanced, that in all Appearance they will open the Campaign early. All Diligence is uſed to ſend forthwith ſome Ships of War to cruiſe for intercepting the Tranſports with Proviſions and Ammunition which 'tis ſuppoſed the Venetians are about ſending by Sea to their Places in the Morea.

Vienna, Decemb. 29. We have Letters from Conſtantinople of the 28th of November N. S. but the Courier who brought them did not leave that Place till the 30th: He reports, that before he came away, the Turks had not only put the Venetian Bailo under a Guard, but had cauſed the other Subjects of that Republick to be ſeized together with their Effects, on Pretence of ſecuring them till they had paid their Debts. It is ſaid, that this Court, upon Advice of the Preparations which the Turks were making, ordered the Imperial Miniſter at the Port to declare, that in Caſe of a Rupture with the Venetians, the Emperor would be obliged to aſſiſt that Republick, purſuant to the Treaties in Force between them; and to offer his Imperial Majeſty's Mediation for procuring Satisfaction to the Turks in Caſe they had any Complaints to make.

Venice, Dec. 22. On the 20th Inſtant a Man of War of the Line was launched, and all Diligence is uſed in building others, and fitting out thoſe which are repaired, that they may be ready in a little time to Sail for the Levant, with a conſiderable Number of Tranſports which are to be ſent thither with Stores of all ſorts and ſome Land-forces. We have confirmed Advice, that a Turkiſh Man of War newly built at Rhodes, has been caſt away in a Storm, with 350 Soldiers and 150 Mariners on board, who all periſhed: That Ship was convoying a great Number of Saicks laden with Proviſions, deſigned for Theſſalonica, Lepanto, and other Places, where the Turks are erecting large Magazines: Thoſe Saicks were diſperſed by the Storm, and there is yet no certain Account what is become of them. The Turks are building at Rhodes divers light Veſſels; they have got ready at Negropont ſeveral Quintals of Biſcuit; they are alſo repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of the Caſtle of Lepanto and of ſome other Places; and the Regencies of Algiers, Tunis and Tripoli have had Orders ſent them from the Port, to have their

Squa-

Squadrons ready to joyn the Ottoman Fleet in the Spring. Upon the Rumour that the Turks will attack Malta, the Marſhal Staremberg has offered to take on him the Command of the Troops of that Order, of which he is a Knight; the Number of thoſe Troops will be above 25000 Men. Several Companies of Veteran Soldiers, who were at Breſcia and in other Towns of the Terra-firma, are arrived at Lido, in order to imbark: New Levies are alſo making by this State, and beſides what Regiments are raiſing in Italy, ſome Princes of the Empire have granted Leave to Liſt Men in their Territories.

Stralſund, Dec. 25 O. S. The King of Sweden having notified by a Letter to the King of Pruſſia his Arrival at this Place, that Prince ſent hither General Slippenbach to congratulate his Majeſty thereupon, and to treat with the Swediſh Miniſters concerning the Sequeſtration of Stetin: What M. Slippenbach propoſed in the Name of the King his Maſter was chiefly this, that his Pruſſian Majeſty was willing to reſtore Stetin with all its Dependencies, provided the King of Sweden would reimburſe him the Expences he had been at; to which his Swediſh Majeſty did not think fit to agree, alledging, that the Treaty of Sequeſtration being concluded without his Knowledge or Participation, he was not obliged to have any Regard to it. As neither Party would abate of their Pretenſions, the Negotiation which had continued here two or three Weeks, was broken off, and General Slippenbach ſet out from hence ſome Days ago, in order to return to Berlin. 'Tis ſaid the King of Pruſſia refuſes to let the Swedes raiſe Contributions, or collect any Duties from the Inhabitants of the Country on the other ſide of the River Pene, in which Diſtrict are comprehended, beſides Stetin, the Towns of Anclam, Ukermunde, and ſeveral other ſmall Places, which the Swedes look upon as an Infraction of the Treaty of Sequeſtration: But notwithſtanding all Difficulties, the Swedes entertain Hopes that this Affair may yet be adjuſted in an amicable way. Three Days after the Arrival here of General Meyerfeldt from Stockholm, Lieutenant-General Sparre was diſpatched to the Court of France; and we hear that M. de Croiſſy, who is appointed to come Ambaſſador from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to the King of Sweden, will not ſet out for this Place, till after Lieutenant-General Sparre's Arrival there. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel is on his Departure this Day for Sweden; the King with ſeveral Officers and other Gentlemen, will accompany him to the Place where he is to embark in the Iſle of Rugen.

Madrid, Dec. 24. The Queen arrived at Pampelona the 11th Inſtant; the News of which being brought hither, Illuminations were made throughout this City four Nights ſucceſſively. The 18th came Advice of her Majeſty's having left Pampelona the 15th, whereupon the Princeſs of Urſini ſet out from Court the 20th to meet her at Jadrique: Yeſterday at Noon the King with the Prince of Aſturias went from hence, lay laſt Night at Alcala, and to Day proceeded to Guadalaxara, where the Queen is to arrive to Night. Their Majeſties are expected here the 26th or 27th. The Cardinal del Giudice having reſigned the Office of Inquiſitor-General, the King has nominated two Inquiſitors-General, viz. Father Robinet a Jeſuit his Confeſſor, and Father Macanas a Dominican Fryar; but 'tis ſaid Father Robinet has deſired to be excuſed from accepting that Employment. The King, on occaſion of his Marriage, has recalled the Duke de Fernandina, who about a Year and half ago was expelled the Court for killing a Man on his Eſtate at Villafranca; and on the 21ſt that Duke was admitted to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

Paris Jan. 12. An extraordinary Courier from Madrid, has brought Advice, of the Queen of Spain's being received by the King at Guadalaxara; 'tis reported that the Princeſs d'Urſini who was ſent before to meet that Queen at Jadrique, having given ſome Offence to her Majeſty, was commanded to leave the Spaniſh Court, and that ſhe is on her Way hither. The Elector of Cologne went from hence two Days ago towards Dinant. The King has given the Government of Straſbourg to the Marſhal d'Huxelles, who ſtill keeps that of Alſace which he had before. M. Francis de Saligniac de la Mothe Fenelon, Archbiſhop Duke of Cambray, one of the Forty of the French Academy, Preceptor of the late Dukes of Burgundy and Berry and of the preſent King of Spain, Author of the Adventures of Telemachus, died ſome Days ago in his Dioceſs.

Hague, Jan. 11. On the 9th Inſtant the States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland began their ordinary Aſſembly here. Mr. Cadogan his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy extraordinary to this Republick arriving here two Days before Mr. Secretary Stanhope imbarked for England, both thoſe Miniſters had a Conference the 9th at Night with the States General, on the Affair of the Barrier. General Sparre is arrived here from the King of Sweden, deſigning after a ſhort Stay at this Place to proceed to the Court of France. M. Palmquiſt, that King's Envoy to this Republick, has preſented a Memorial to the States General, complaining of a Placart publiſhed by their High Mightineſſes in the Month of July laſt, relating to the Moleſtation given by the Swedes to the Trade in the Baltick. Count Tarouca and Don Louis d'Acunha, Plenipotentiaries of Portugal, are come hither this Evening from Utrecht.

Deal, January 6. His Majeſty's Yacht Henrietta came in hither yeſterday Afternoon, and having landed the Earl of Albemarle, ſailed this Morning for Dover Peer.

St. James's, January 7. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to direct Letters Patents to paſs the Seals, for creating the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Wharton, Keeper of his Majeſty's Privy-Seal, a Marqueſs of Great Britain, by the Name, Stile and Title of Marqueſs of Wharton in the County of Weſtmorland, and of Malmeſbury in the County of Wilts; and alſo for creating his Lordſhip Baron, Earl and Marqueſs of the Kingdom of Ireland, by the Name, Stile and Title of Baron of Trim in the County of Meath, Earl of Rathfarnam in the County of Dublin, and Marqueſs of Catherlogh in the County of Catherlogh.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Matthew Kirwood, Eſq;

Hugh Cholmeley, Eſq; to be Surveyor-General of all his Majeſty's Honours, Caſtles, Lordſhips, Forreſts, Chaces, Parks, Lands, Woods, &c. in England and Wales.
